Overview

Set within the award-winning Cape Yamu Estate, Naam Sawan is a contemporary architectural gem occupying an exclusive stretch of absolute waterfront on Phuket's north-east coast. Designed by the world-renowned duo Philippe Starck and Jean-Michel Gathy, this five-bedroom villa blends modern sophistication with the island's timeless natural beauty.

Perched above the tranquil waters of Phang Nga Bay, Naam Sawan offers sweeping views across a landscape of lush green hills, tropical foliage, and limestone karsts rising dramatically from the sea. Every part of its design, from the large open-plan interiors to the seamless indoor-outdoor flow, has been created to show off the surrounding landscape. The villa's five ensuite bedrooms, complemented by three powder rooms, provide privacy for families, friends, or corporate retreats seeking an exceptional seaside escape.

Guests of Naam Sawan enjoy access to the five-star COMO Point Yamu Resort, which boasts world-class wellness, dining, and sports facilities. For those who are keen to explore, pristine islands, national parks, waterfalls, and Phuket's best beaches are all within easy reach, though many guests find little reason to leave this extraordinary haven.

A dedicated team, including a professionally trained chef, villa manager, housekeepers, and 24-hour security, ensures impeccable service and indulgence.
