Overview

Casa Elvina is an impressive six-bedroom villa set within a beautifully landscaped private estate in Massa Lubrense, close to Sorrento. Spread across three floors, the property combines elegant interiors with generous outdoor areas and panoramic views across the Gulf of Naples towards Capri and Ischia. Surrounded by mature Mediterranean gardens, centuries-old pine trees and exotic palms, it provides a peaceful setting while remaining within easy reach of the Amalfi Coast.

The ground floor features a spacious open-plan living and dining area, with seating for larger groups, a TV lounge and a fully equipped designer kitchen. Large sliding glass doors open directly onto the terrace and garden, creating a natural connection between indoor and outdoor living. The six ensuite bedrooms are arranged across the first and second floors, with each offering sea views and access to a balcony. Two of the bedrooms also include separate sitting areas, while an internal lift connects all three floors.

Outside, the landscaped grounds provide plenty of space to relax, with shaded garden pathways, a private heated swimming pool with hydromassage jets and a dedicated sunbathing area. An outdoor kitchen and barbecue make alfresco dining easy, while the panoramic rooftop terrace offers a wonderful spot to enjoy the views across the sea and surrounding islands. Additional facilities include a fitness area, private parking and an electric vehicle charging point. With Sorrento, Positano and the wider Amalfi Coast within easy reach, Casa Elvina is an excellent base for exploring this beautiful part of southern Italy.
