Overview

Set on the shores of Plum Bay in the exclusive Terres Basses community, Château des Palmiers is an exceptional fully staffed beachfront estate offering the privacy of a luxury villa with the service of a boutique hotel. Available as a six or ten-bedroom property, the estate is ideal for family holidays, celebrations and group escapes.

The estate comprises two separate villas: the six-bedroom Ocean Villa overlooking the beach and the four-bedroom Garden Villa, surrounded by mature tropical gardens. Spacious indoor and outdoor living areas provide plenty of room to gather or unwind, while the heated beachfront swimming pool, jacuzzi and sunset gazebo make the most of the spectacular oceanfront setting.

Guests have access to an impressive range of facilities, including a private tennis court, fitness centre, media and games room, plus direct access to the white sands of Plum Bay. Whether you're enjoying a morning swim, an afternoon on the beach or an evening cocktail overlooking the sea, every space has been designed for relaxed Caribbean living.

A dedicated team ensures a seamless stay, with an on-site estate manager, private chef preparing three meals a day, butler service, daily housekeeping and complimentary airport transfers all included. From arranging island excursions and restaurant reservations to serving drinks by the pool, every detail is taken care of.

Just a short drive from the beaches, restaurants and attractions of Saint Martin, Château des Palmiers combines outstanding facilities, exceptional service and one of the island's finest beachfront locations for an unforgettable Caribbean escape.
