Overview

With beautiful sea views, graceful cutting-edge design and a spectacular infinity pool terrace, this incredible villa is reminiscent of the celebrity-owned villas of the Hollywood Hills. Moments from the water, and brimming with upscale amenities, this is the perfect option for those seeking the very finest Crete villa holiday.

Designed in the modern minimalist style, with a focus on natural light, clean lines, and light tones, Villa Cyan is as impressive inside as outside. Almost all of the communal spaces open straight to sea views, with panoramic, floor-to-ceiling sliding doors helping to create a sense of space and bring the outside in. The main living room is an idyllic place to relax, with state-of-the-art furnishings, a large flat-screen television, and unparalleled sea views. This connects through to an open-plan, ultra-modern kitchen, and a dining area with stylish seating. Heading downstairs, guests can discover the remarkable leisure annex, complete with a playroom, gym, sauna and Turkish Bath.

Outside, the villa truly impresses, with verdant grass gardens crisscrossed by a network of manicured pathways, and mesmerising sea views. The villa's stunning pool deck is even more picturesque, with chic loungers and seating, and a nearby outdoor kitchen for al fresco meal times. Finish the day by enjoy dinner at the pergola-covered marble table and watch the sunset, or relax in the pool complete with a Jacuzzi corner.
