Overview

Casa Alang Alang is one of Costa Rica's leading luxury residences, providing unparalleled comfort in a privileged setting. Perched on a tranquil private hillside just moments from the beach in, this ultra-luxe mansion is the perfect setting for your Costa Rica beach escape.

The three-storey Balinese-style villa building covers an impressive 15,000 square feet, making it ideal for larger families or groups. The interior is furnished in a contemporary Asian-inspired style, with minimalistic décor, high-quality dark wood furnishings, and lofty ceilings. The central living spaces are open-plan and notably spacious, with sliding doors allowing you to open the rooms up to the terrace and bring the outside in. You'll love relaxing in the large lounge area with bespoke sofa seating, and dining in style at the large ironwood dinner table, suitable for twelve guests. A custom industrial kitchen is close at hand for culinary convenience.

Elsewhere, the villa provides a media room with a 60-inch Apple TV for cinema screenings and television shows as well as a fitness room for yoga and exercise. The villa's external space is equally impressive, with spectacular views across the jungle and sea, and a range of terraces offering unique amenities. On the ground floor, a large twenty-one-metre lap pool provides plenty of opportunity to cool down and refresh yourself, while the upper-level infinity-pool is a more serene experience, with flowing edges creating an unforgettable view. Hammocks and day beds are provided for luxurious lounging, while the covered bale area and peaceful courtyard make it easy to find a space to relax whatever the weather.

Accommodation

Casa Alang Alang has eight bedrooms, each designed to a world-class style.

Upper Level

On the upper level, there is the villa's remarkable master bedroom with a large 200cm x 200cm bed, stunning views, a bathroom with double sinks and double showers, and a walk-in wardrobe.

Middle Level

On the middle level, there are two bedrooms, one with a king size bed and one with one king and one single bed. Each features a private bathroom.

Lower Level

On the lower level, there are four bedrooms. Three bedrooms come with king-size beds, while one is ideal for children and comes with five single beds for added convenience. The three king rooms have terrace or garden space and come with an en-suite bathroom. The bedroom with five single beds also has a private bathroom, as well as a table tennis table and large 60-inch television, making it ideal for children and teens.

Apartment

The villa also has a separate apartment, with its own living space, kitchen and luxury king-size bedroom, as well as a private bathroom. A private terrace is also available for guests to use.
