Overview

Set in a central yet private position in Positano, Villa Vigna Bella is a historic residence that combines traditional Amalfi Coast character with elegant contemporary comforts. Located along the town's famous Via Pasitea, the villa offers a peaceful retreat within easy reach of Positano's boutiques, restaurants and beach. The interiors feature hand-finished ceramics, carefully chosen furnishings and traditional architectural details, creating a relaxed Mediterranean atmosphere. Outside, a private lemon grove and spectacular sea views capture the essence of coastal living, with the iconic Positano skyline and the waters of the Mediterranean providing a beautiful backdrop.

Villa Vigna Bella accommodates up to 12 guests across six bedrooms and five bathrooms, arranged over three levels. The entrance floor has a queen bedroom with an en-suite shower room and a private terrace overlooking the sea. On the second floor, three further bedrooms include two rooms that can be configured as queen or twin, both with sea-view balconies, and a queen bedroom with skylights. These rooms share two bathrooms. The lower level has two additional queen or twin bedrooms, both with direct access to the garden; one has an en-suite shower room, while the other has a dedicated bathroom across the hall. All bedrooms are air conditioned and have Smart TVs, while bathrooms are supplied with hairdryers and toiletries. The main living spaces have a fresh, contemporary Mediterranean style, with comfortable seating, white furnishings, colourful accents and elegant arched details. The kitchen features crisp white cabinetry, a central island with bar seating and decorative ceramic tiles, while the adjoining dining area opens onto a private terrace, creating a welcoming space for meals together.

Outside, a spacious sea-view terrace is furnished with comfortable seating and a large dining table beneath a shaded pergola, providing an inviting setting for al fresco meals. The private lemon grove adds a distinctive touch of Positano character, while the saltwater infinity pool measures approximately 8.5m by 4m and overlooks Fornillo and the town's colourful hillside buildings. The pool is covered and heated from October to March, making it possible to enjoy the water beyond the main summer season. Additional facilities include a washing machine and dryer, ice machine, heating, Wi-Fi and satellite Smart TVs with Sky and streaming apps. Daily housekeeping, a local concierge and porter service on arrival and departure are included, helping to make the stay more comfortable.

Villa Vigna Bella is ideally placed for enjoying Positano on foot, with shops, restaurants and the beach accessible via the town's characteristic stepped lanes. The surrounding Amalfi Coast offers plenty of opportunities for exploring picturesque villages, enjoying coastal restaurants and discovering hidden coves by boat. Nearby Praiano and Amalfi are well worth visiting, while Ravello is known for its gardens and panoramic viewpoints high above the coastline. Boat trips to Capri and Ischia offer another memorable way to experience the region, and history enthusiasts can visit the archaeological sites of Pompeii and Herculaneum.
