Overview

Set just metres from the beach in a peaceful setting surrounded by rice paddies and landscaped gardens, Ambalama Bali Villa is a beautifully designed private retreat just 15 minutes from the restaurants, bars and nightlife of Canggu.

Designed by an award-winning architect, the villa combines contemporary design with traditional Balinese influences. The main pavilion enjoys 360-degree views across the ocean, rice fields and distant mountains, opening onto a spacious sun terrace and 25-metre infinity pool as well as a toddler pool.

The six bedrooms are spread across several buildings, each with their own entrances. Four private guest villas are set within the tropical gardens, each with its own outdoor deck, water feature and individually designed interiors. The Master Villa has its own 9m private swimming pool, making it particularly well suited to couples or honeymooners seeking additional privacy. An additional guest room sits below the master villa and features a verandah and private garden.

The villa's spacious layout provides plenty of areas for relaxing, dining and enjoying the surrounding views, with the landscaped gardens creating a tranquil atmosphere throughout. A full team of staff including housekeeping, a chef, villa manager, security and maintenance ensures a relaxed stay, while the villa's peaceful location offers a welcome escape from the busier areas of Bali.

With the beach just a short walk away and Canggu within easy reach, Ambalama Bali Villa offers a combination of privacy, space and exceptional design in one of Bali's most sought-after coastal areas.
