Overview

Set against the turquoise waters of Nonsuch Bay and directly facing the untouched Green Island, this exquisitely designed East End Villa offers a rare blend of seclusion, luxury, and natural beauty, perfect for guests seeking true privacy and intimacy.

The villa's spacious, open-concept design invites you to move seamlessly from the tastefully appointed interior living spaces to the breezy terrace.

All bedrooms have their own private access to guarantee intimacy throughout all your stay.

A unique feature of the villa is its handmade stone steps that lead directly into the water, creating an elegant and immersive connection with the bay.

Inside, every corner has been meticulously curated with furnishings crafted by the finest artisans. From sumptuous seating areas to elegantly finished bedrooms, no detail has been overlooked.

Guests staying at East End Villa can enjoy a secluded private beach and a private jetty that extends into the bay, ideal for mooring a boat or setting off on a leisurely coastal cruise. The jetty may be used to moor your own boat or arranged for convenient pick-up and drop-off by sea.
