Overview

Casa Cielo Aqua is a modern five bedroom villa that boasts some fantastic sea views from its poolside and upper terrace. Located in S'Argamassa, a beachfront destination most famous for the Nikki beach club, it lies just to the north of the popular town and sandy beaches of Santa Eulalia.

The golden sands and resort amenities of Santa Eulalia are a popular family beach destination, and here at Casa Cielo Aqua you're just minutes away. The sea is merely metres away, and you can hire boats on the beachfront right in front of the property.

Casa Cielo Aqua is completely fenced, surrounded with stone walls and planting to enhance the privacy of the outside space. On the lower terrace a beautiful 45m² L-shaped pool provides a cool way to escape the heat of the Ibiza sunshine. Or relax on the poolside loungers to soak up some of those golden rays. A sociable dining space, with large table seating ten, also sits alongside the pool, with sliding doors opening onto the interior, where a lounge area and well-equipped kitchen in light, natural wood create a charming entertaining space.

Inside, the five bedrooms are all en-suite, with three doubles and two twins split over the villa's two floors. On the upper level, an additional large terrace space enjoys fantastic sea views. It's the perfect spot to grab a beanbag and relax with friends – whether to watch the sun rise over the sea or to enjoy a sociable drink in the evening.

Casa Cielo Aqua can be rented alongside its sister property Casa Cielo Azul, accommodating 18 guests across 9 bedrooms.
