Overview

Villa Tamatoa is a beautiful property opening to enchanting views of the Aegean Sea, in the area of Pouli. This villa sets the tone for an unforgettable, luxurious holiday on the island of Mykonos.

This newly built Cycladic-style villa features clean white lines, soft green shutters, and 550 sqm of living space across multiple levels. With six independent guest houses and accommodation for up to 18 people, it works well for groups who want both privacy and shared social areas.

Outdoor living is a major highlight, with a large infinity pool, shaded lounge areas under the pergola, and space for relaxed meals and drinks throughout the day. It's designed so guests can spend most of their time outside enjoying the weather and views.

Inside, the villa is bright, minimal, and comfortable. Natural light, neutral colours, and modern finishes create a calm atmosphere. Built-in features, contemporary furnishings, and simple rustic touches appear throughout the bedrooms, bathrooms, and shared areas, giving the property a clean, modern-Cycladic look with a relaxed feel.

Thanks to its convenient location near Mykonos Town and the community of Ornos, Villa Tamatoa is perfect for guests who want easy access to beaches, restaurants, and the island's nightlife while still enjoying a private retreat.
