Overview

Set within the Royal Westmoreland estate on Barbados' West Coast, Villa St. Lucy is a seven-bedroom villa offering a relaxed but refined Caribbean experience. The villa sleeps up to 14 guests, making it a great choice for families or groups of friends looking for space, comfort, and privacy in one of the island's most established communities.

The villa comes fully staffed with a butler, cook, housekeeper, laundress, and gardener, so guests can simply relax and enjoy their stay from the moment they arrive.

Accommodation is split across two levels. The four upper-level bedrooms benefit from open sea views, while the three lower-ground bedrooms have their own private access and patios leading directly onto the gardens, giving them a more independent, cottage-style feel. All seven bedrooms are air-conditioned with en-suite bathrooms.

Inside, there are several comfortable living areas to choose from, including a main living space, a separate sitting room, and a dedicated office for anyone needing to stay connected. Dining can be enjoyed indoors at the coral stone table or outside in the covered dining area — a nice spot for lunch or an evening meal.

The gardens are well-maintained and offer a good degree of privacy, while the villa's elevated position gives views across the golf course and out to the Caribbean Sea.

As part of the Royal Westmoreland estate, guests have access to an 18-hole championship golf course, tennis, pickleball and padel courts, a members' bar and restaurant, and a wellness centre.

*Please note: A resort fee of US$150 will apply per week or part thereof. These fees will be payable to access the resort amenities on registration.
