Overview

Nestled in the exclusive Sol de Mallorca neighbourhood in the island's southwest, Villa Cel Blau offers breathtaking views of one of Mallorca's most picturesque coastlines. The area is a haven of natural beauty, featuring clear turquoise waters, lush pine woods, and three pristine white-sand beaches. This serene and scenic retreat is perfect for an idyllic island holiday. Just steps away, a small harbour provides opportunities to charter boats for coastal exploration or to visit the luxurious marinas of Port Adriano and Puerto Portals. Plus, the vibrant and historic capital of Palma is less than a 30-minute drive away.

Villa Cel Blau accommodates up to ten guests with five sunlit bedrooms, including four with full-length double beds and one with twin beds. The villa's interior is bright, clean, and elegantly understated, with large windows that showcase the stunning surroundings. The master suite boasts a spacious walk-in wardrobe and a luxurious bathroom complete with a freestanding bathtub, offering a chance to relax while taking in the breathtaking views.

Step outside, and you'll be drawn to the villa's eight-metre infinity pool, where you can bask in spectacular sea views. Perfect for both relaxation and swimming, the pool can also be heated during cooler months (for an additional fee). Spread across several levels, the villa's terraces offer a variety of peaceful corners to unwind, while a Sonos music system helps set the perfect holiday atmosphere. Plush loungers and a shaded daybed provide ideal spots for reading, sipping cocktails, or indulging in an afternoon siesta.

The bright, modern kitchen is fully equipped for easy meal preparation, featuring a cozy breakfast nook and a spacious indoor dining area. For outdoor dining, you'll find a gas barbecue, an outdoor kitchen, and a long alfresco dining table, perfect for leisurely lunches under the sun. If you prefer dining out, the Ventuno Beach Club at Playa del Mago and Es Repòs at Portals Vells beach are both within walking distance, just be sure to book ahead during the summer!
