

Villa Petrolo

Overview

Villa Petrolo is a magnificent stately 750sqm villa and is the crown jewel of the Fattoria Petrolo estate located within walking distance of the town of Mercatale Valdarno. Villa Petrolo was built by renowned architect Massimiliano Soldani as his own residence, between 1700 and 1750.

The villa is nestled in extensive grounds of over one hectare and features a private 6x12 metre swimming pool and a tennis court.

Ground floor - Entrance, large kitchen with fireplace, two dining rooms with fireplaces, a large double living-room with television and a fireplace, a smaller living-room with television, a large billiard-room, a bedroom with twin beds with private bathroom.

First floor - Vast hall with Murano crystal chandelier, 1 double bedroom with private bathroom en-suite and a balcony, 1 twin bedroom with bath en-suite, 2 doubles each one with bathroom en-suite, 1 twin with private bathroom, 1 double bedroom with private bathroom, 1 double and 1 single bedroom sharing 1 bathroom.

Optional on request:

Second floor, apartment "A" - Separate sitting area , 1 bedroom with three beds, 2 bedrooms with one double bed each, 1 bedroom with two single beds, 1 large bathroom with bathtub, 1 bathroom with shower.

Second floor, apartment "B" - Separate entrance (former staff apartment with plain interior decoration). 1 double bedroom, 2 bedrooms with two single beds each, 1 bathroom with bathtub and 1 bathroom with shower.

The interiors of Villa Petrolo is primarily furnished with beautiful Tuscan antiques, and both old school masterpieces and modern paintings grace its walls. It is a perfect place for family gatherings and weddings.

Dominating the countryside and landmark of this large estate, is the Tower of Galatrona the foundations of which date back to the Etruscans and Romans. The Tower itself lends its name to Petrolo's outstanding wines, the "Torrione" (meaning "big tower"): and the "Galatrona".

Petrolo is famous for its production of wines, extra virgin olive oil and honey; a visit to the wine cellars and traditional olive-mill are a must !

Amenities

- ✓ Fifteen bedrooms
 - ✓ Twelve bathrooms
 - ✓ Living room
 - ✓ TV's
 - ✓ Billiard table
 - ✓ Ping pong table
 - ✓ Formal indoor dining
 - ✓ Swimming pool
 - ✓ Spectacular views
 - ✓ WiFi
 - ✓ BBQ
 - ✓ Outdoor seating
 - ✓ Weddings and events
-

Inclusions

Pool and Beach

- ✓ The location is inland with spectacular views. The coast and beaches are approx one hour drive away
 - ✓ Villa Petrolo has a private swimming pool
-

Villa Pictures

