Overview

Sea Grove House captures the essence of refined coastal living on Barbados' platinum west coast. Newly built and quietly elegant, this five-bedroom beachfront villa in St. James blends clean architectural lines with the easy rhythm of island life. From the moment you arrive, the sound of the courtyard fountain and the soft ocean breeze set a tone of calm sophistication.

Upstairs, three beautifully appointed, air-conditioned bedrooms each feature a king-size bed and an ensuite bathroom; two of the bathrooms include both a shower and a tub. Two of the bedrooms sit side by side, opening onto private balconies with breathtaking views of the Caribbean Sea, perfect for enjoying a peaceful morning coffee or an evening cocktail.

The main bedroom includes an adjoining snug overlooking the infinity pool, perfect for quiet reading or working with a view. A second snug, located down the hall, is designed as a flexible office space or a spot for relaxed downtime.

The third bedroom faces the garden and has its own ensuite with a shower. There's also an additional balcony positioned between the third bedroom and the snug, another serene space to enjoy the island breeze. Downstairs, two additional air-conditioned bedrooms each open onto private verandas with seating areas framed by tropical greenery, offering both comfort and privacy.

The villa's open-plan design connects the sleek modern kitchen including a private chef's prep area, dining, and TV room, with sliding glass doors that lead seamlessly to the main terrace and private pool deck. At the heart of the home, a tranquil courtyard centres the layout, where a trio of fountains and lush foliage create a serene indoor-outdoor flow.

Every detail of Sea Grove House has been considered, cool stone floors, neutral tones, and natural textures that strike the right balance between elegance and ease. Outdoors, the expansive terrace offers shaded lounges and al fresco dining, overlooking the pool and a secluded stretch of beach, a rare find even on Barbados' celebrated West Coast.

Sea Grove House is perfect for a relaxing getaway, complete with cook service and an upgraded chef service over festive season. Whether a romantic Barbados escape or a peaceful retreat with friends, it offers the perfect balance of comfort and island charm. Whether you spend your days poolside, discovering nearby restaurants, or simply enjoying the sea breeze, this Barbados luxury villa for groups makes every moment effortless.

Please note: The beach experiences seasonal fluctuations in its accessibility.
