Overview

Villa Natha is a stylish and contemporary five bedroom villa perched on a hillside only a short distance from one of Koh Samui's most famous beaches, Chaweng. Just a 10 minute walk away, guests will find shops, bars and restaurants along this beautiful coastline.

Split over three levels, the villa maximises space and the stunning ocean views on offer. Each level has its own private garden area and are connected by inner stairways. The main living areas of the villa can be found on the upper floor, with a comfortable lounge area with an oversized sofa suite leading through to the dining room which can comfortably seat 10 people at the polished wooden dining table. Both areas are serviced by the fully equipped kitchen. A second kitchen is available for staff and the private chef if required. The living and dining rooms have floor to ceiling windows opening up to the spectacular views of the ocean. A second living/media room is located on the middle floor and leads through to a private office space.

The first bedroom is located on the upper level and is a master suite featuring a king bed, ensuite bathroom with both indoor and outdoor shower, access to the pool area and beautiful sea views. The next three bedrooms are located on the middle floor, all feature ensuite bathrooms, one with a king bed and two with queen beds. The final room is found on the lower floor and features a king bed, ensuite bathroom and living area.

There are plenty of entertainment options at Villa Natha including a luxurious cinema room with large HD screen, a private treatment room for various spa treatments (additional cost) and a well equipped gym for those wanting to keep active. The large infinity pool is the perfect place to relax during the day on comfortable sun loungers under the shade of umbrellas.
