Overview

The Retreat is a Caribbean hideaway, located in Nevis, is like no other. Every inch of this stunning island villa has been meticulously designed with luxury in mind, from the upscale pool terrace to the fully-equipped private gym.

Situated on a secluded one-acre hillside, the villa enjoys plenty of natural light thanks to its enviable position. Designed by a world-leading architect, the spacious rooms reflect a fusion between subtle West Indies design and cutting-edge luxury style. Light tones emphasise the airy design of this 5,000 square-foot villa, and huge windows look out to the verdant manicured gardens and the vivid blue sea.

Every room has been designed with the utmost comfort in mind, with hi-tech discreet air-conditioning, modern multi-setting ceiling fans and a Sonos sound system networked throughout the property. The elegant and impressive open-plan living room is the villa's most remarkable space, opening out to the sea-view terrace via panoramic sliding doors. A modern kitchen is close at hand for gastronomic respite, while the inviting seating nook adds an element of intimacy for those wanting added privacy. Head downstairs to discover a bespoke media room, with a 55-inch television complete and a high-quality audio system, and The Retreat's gym, stocked with a spin bike, rowing machine, dumbbells and much more.

Outside you'll find the villa's piece de resistance – a tranquil tropical oasis boasting an expansive 30-foot swimming pool and spa pool complete with massage jets and pool floats, surrounded by a furnished sun-terrace equipped with a speaker system and a professional-grade BBQ. There's even a poolside gazebo with a drinks fridge in case you need to shelter from a tropical downpour, and an outdoor bathroom for those who love to be among nature. All of this is surrounded by a beautiful one-acre estate with palms, tropical plants and manicured grounds helping to create a peaceful oasis for your Nevis escape.
