Overview

Welcome to the official website of Crystal Springs. Crystal Springs is an enchanting beachfront villa set on 1.7 acres on Barbados' West "Platinum" Coast. The 12,000 sq ft residence, with a staff of 14, comprises six beautiful buildings connected by coral stone terraces, pathways and a bridge. There are a multitude of living spaces, three al fresco dining areas and 10 guest rooms, each featuring an en-suite bathroom, luxurious amenities and accommodating layouts, making Crystal Springs an ideal villa for large groups or families looking for an intimate holiday retreat.

Created by legendary designer Oliver Messel in the 1960s and completely restored in 2014, Crystal Springs' elegant façade, stylish décor and breathtaking views provide a magical, theatrical ambiance, yet the impressive villa innately feels like a welcoming home where ultimate relaxation awaits.

The villa's amenities are exquisitely designed to provide an unforgettable experience, including a stunning 50x20ft infinity swimming pool looking onto the Caribbean Sea, a secluded cove beach ideal for sunbathing, swimming and snorkeling, an 18' speedboat with a professional boat master, a state-of-the-art cinema and a high-tech fitness centre. In addition, a Sunfish sailboat, paddle boards plus an array of watersport equipment are readily on hand.

Enhancing the magic of Crystal Springs' divine setting and amenities, its dedicated staff of 14 provides the consummate service, allowing you to enjoy gourmet dining, five-star concierge planning and personalised yet unobtrusive pampering that ensures your stay is nothing short of exceptional, and one you'll wish to return to again and again.
