Overview

Villa Mirage is a beautiful, modern, five bedroom villa just 10 meters from Crete's north eastern coastline. Eloundra is just a five minute walk away and was originally the site of the ancient city of Olous. The now sunken ruins of the city can still be seen on a calm day and add to the cultural heritage of the modern town. Many of the island's best beaches are also within easy reach of the property.

Spread over two levels, the villa's design combines modern minimalism with style and simplicity, using neutral colours to create a relaxing atmosphere. The ground floor is home to an open plan living area with comfortable sofas facing the large flat screen TV as well as a large wooden dining table that can comfortably fit the whole family. The kitchen is located next to the dining table making meal times a very social occasion.

Villa Mirage boasts five bedrooms, four of which have ensuite bathrooms and several have balconies overlooking the Cretian sea. Spend your days relaxing by the private pool which also features hydromassage jets. Sun loungers are available as well as shady spots to escape the heat of the sun. This is the perfect place for your next family holiday to Crete.
