Overview

Schooner Bay 113, Boana offers a refined take on Caribbean living within one of Barbados' most prestigious beachfront developments. Nestled along a quiet, pristine stretch of the island's Platinum Coast, Schooner Bay combines understated elegance with the peace and privacy of a secure, beautifully landscaped setting, just steps from the Caribbean Sea.

Ideally located on the edge of Speightstown, Boana offers convenient access to one of Barbados' most charming and historic towns. Enjoy beachside cafés, local art galleries, boutique shops, and relaxed fine dining, all within walking distance of your townhouse. Hometown is only a 10 minute drive away and offers a livelier scene with chic restaurants, bars, and upscale shopping at Limegrove Lifestyle Centre, Chatter Village, and Sunset Crest.

The recently renovated one bedroom townhouse has been thoughtfully designed and tastefully furnished and offers a welcoming, stylish space perfect for a romantic retreat or a solo escape. Every detail from the curated interiors to the comfortable layout has been considered to ensure a luxurious yet relaxed stay.

Guests staying at Boana enjoy access to the full suite of Schooner Bay amenities, including a large free-form swimming pool, jacuzzi, and a sun deck reserved exclusively for residents and guests. Just beyond the gardens, the white sand and clear waters of the Caribbean await. This beach is ideal for swimming, sunbathing, or a leisurely stroll. For wellness and activity, a fully equipped fitness centre is on-site, while water sports can be arranged through the nearby Cobblers Cove Hotel.

For Golf lovers, the property is close to several excellent courses, Royal Westmoreland and the legendary Sandy Lane, both offering world-class play against a backdrop of tropical beauty.

Whether you are seeking a peaceful beachside escape or an elegant base from which to explore the west coast, Schooner Bay 113, Boana delivers the perfect balance of comfort, location, and authentic island luxury.
