Overview

Villa Yoga is one of Seminyak's best kept secrets. This villa features seven bedrooms and is nestled in peaceful, tropical gardens yet within close proximity of the bars and restaurants of Seminyak. A hidden gem that is, as the name already reveals, a dream come true for yoga enthusiasts.

The villa features not only offers ample indoor and outdoor seating areas, a large shimmering swimming pool and a large garden, but also a thatched roofed balé designed especially for practicing yoga and meditation to the sounds of nature.

Villa Yoga features traditional architecture with stunning along-alang roofed pavilions and elegant natural interior designs characterized by beautiful hand-carved teak furniture. Villa Yoga also has an impressive collection of traditional artwork and instruments to admire, descending from different islands across Indonesia.

With no less than 7 bedrooms spread out across the expansive property of villa Yoga and a large open-plan yoga studio that overlooks the sparkling swimming pool, this villa is ideal for holding special events and it is especially perfect for yoga gatherings and retreats.

Villa Yoga has an abundance of communal hubs as well as cosy little hang out spots to enjoy some quiet time in the beautiful tropical garden. There are comfy sofas for curling up with a good book or watching a movie on the big flat-screen TV with DVD-player. The huge square teak dining tables, one located inside and one outside on the breezy veranda, make great places for communal gathering spots while the breakfast-bar of the fully equipped state-of-the-art kitchen, makes a nice place to enjoy a mug of hot tea in the early morning before the yoga practice starts.

Villa Yoga can accommodate up to 14 guests in the 7 deluxe villa suites found within the estate. All the bedrooms feature air-conditioning, big wardrobe closets, private veranda's with garden view and wonderful private en-suite bathrooms fitted with tropical alfresco rain-showers. The main house of villa Yoga houses 3 of the bedrooms on the first floor, including the opulent master suite. Two of these rooms are adjoined to a beautiful teak wooden terrace where you can wake up slowly, gazing at the lovely view over the garden and pool. The master room boasts a large bathtub to soak in for ultimate relaxation.

The other four bedrooms are tucked in private garden bungalows. All of these secluded bedrooms are fitted with king-size or twin-beds which can be joined together to make one large double or even a triple-bed for a restful night sleep. The garden-like en-suites give great possibilities for showering beneath Bali's beautiful starlit sky in the ambiance of tropical greenery and natural river stones.
