Overview

Casa Hacienda Jaguar is a newly constructed villa featuring three elegant bedrooms with stunning ocean views. Located in the charming village of Ojochal on the southern Pacific coast, it is the perfect place for your Costa Rican getaway. Nestled on a hill at the base of stunning jungle-clad mountains, this luxurious villa offers breathtaking views from every room.

Cook up a storm with your family in the gourmet kitchen while watching toucans perched in the surrounding trees. Take a break and explore one of the nearby waterfalls or beaches, then cool off in the privacy of your own pool. Relax by the fireplace and savour your favourite tipple while watching the sun sink into the ocean.

Casa Hacienda Jaguar offers two ocean-view master suites, one on the upper floor and one on the lower floor, each with its own en suite bathroom. For larger families or groups, there is a third room with two wooden bunk beds, one with a double bed below and a single on top, the other with two single beds, sleeping up to five people. This room has access to a small shower room down the hall.

The downstairs boasts a chic and modern open plan kitchen and living room surrounded by glass windows that open up onto the large covered terrace overlooking the pool, jungle, and ocean. The terrace features a BBQ and dining area, perfect for enjoying your meals al fresco.

Our on-call concierge is available to assist in arranging tours, excursions, or services such as a private chef or massage, ensuring that your stay is both enjoyable and stress-free.
