The peaceful setting offers privacy and a sense of seclusion, while views of the sea can be enjoyed in the distance. The beaches of Savelletri are just a five-minute drive away, making the villa a good choice for guests who want to combine relaxing days by the pool with time on the coast. The property is also well placed for exploring the Valle d'Itria, an area known for its distinctive trulli houses, historic towns and excellent local cuisine.

Villa Neri accommodates up to eight guests across four bedrooms, each with its own en-suite bathroom. Three bedrooms are on the ground floor, two with direct access to the garden and bathrooms with bathtubs, while the third has an en-suite shower room. The fourth bedroom is on the first floor and opens onto a private panoramic terrace, with an en-suite shower room. All bedrooms are air conditioned. The separate, fully equipped kitchen serves the outdoor dining area, making it easy to enjoy meals together in the open air. The interiors combine warm tones and natural textures inspired by the local stone, with contemporary furniture balanced by traditional details.

Outside, the private garden is designed for spending time in the sunshine. A pavilion overlooks the swimming pool, while the stone sun deck is furnished with loungers and sunbeds. There is also a whirlpool for relaxing at the end of the day and a covered patio with a dining table for up to eight guests, ideal for leisurely lunches and evening meals. For an additional touch of relaxation, the villa has a dedicated wellness area on the lower floor, complete with a private sauna and sensory shower. The grounds are fully fenced, and further amenities include a barbecue, outdoor shower, Wi-Fi, heating and private parking.
