Overview

Villa Thalia is a striking contemporary four-bedroom villa in the heart of Kassiopi, on Corfu's sought-after north-east coast. Combining modern architecture with stylish interiors and high-end amenities, the villa offers a private and comfortable retreat within a short walk of the village's harbour, beaches, shops and waterfront tavernas.

The interiors are bright and spacious, with a clean, minimalist aesthetic, neutral tones and floor-to-ceiling windows that bring in natural light and open directly onto the pool terrace. The open-plan living and dining area connects with a contemporary, fully equipped kitchen, creating an inviting space for spending time together. There is also a dedicated study and a guest shower room.

The four air-conditioned bedrooms each have an en-suite bathroom and can be configured with super-king or twin beds. The layout is well suited to families and groups of friends, with comfortable accommodation and modern facilities throughout.

Outside, the private heated swimming pool is the centrepiece of the villa, featuring a beach-style entrance, counter-current system, glass waterfall and underwater lighting. Sun loungers and landscaped gardens surround the pool, while a pergola-covered lounge and spacious dining terrace with a built-in barbecue provide plenty of space to relax and enjoy meals outdoors. A private wellness area includes a gym and infrared sauna, adding to the villa's appeal.

One of Villa Thalia's main advantages is its location. The beach is around a five-minute walk away, while Kassiope's picturesque harbour, restaurants, cafés and boutiques are approximately ten minutes on foot. With no need to hire a car for everyday outings, the villa makes an excellent base for enjoying Corfu's north-east coast.
