Point of View

Overview

Located on the famous Sandy Lane Estate in the parish of St James in Barbados , sits Point of View, an aptly named stunning home on two acres of gardens. Its name derives from the panoramic views of the coast and beautiful sunsets over the Caribbean sea. These views can be enjoyed from almost all the open plan rooms of the villa.

The beautifully designed gardens also sets this property apart from others, with a lily pond and a walk-over bridge offering a serene environment in which to enjoy the views.

Relax and enjoy memorable meal times in the large airy living and dining rooms, or lounge on one of the many sprawling verandas. Two gazebos add to the splendour of this jewel, along with the pool and the relaxation deck.

There are five ultra luxurious double bedrooms each with an en suite bathroom, as well as a powder room for guests.
