Overview

Villa Alba is a luxurious five bedroom private villa tucked away amidst the paddy fields of Thiththagalla village. Its contemporary architecture and design harmoniously coexist with nature, providing the perfect setting for unwinding, de-stressing, and being pampered by the expert team.

The village of Thiththagalla is a friendly, welcoming place where the locals will make you feel at home. Located just five minute from Kathaluwa beach, where you will find local cafes and restaurants. Galle Fort is a 30 minute drive to the west and famous beach destination and whale watching spot Mirissa is 30 minutes drive to the east.

The main house boasts a spacious open-plan living area, complete with a breakfast bar, dining area, cozy sofa, and a secluded library. From here, you can access the pool deck, where a 40-foot pool awaits you, offering serene views of the garden and the sprawling paddy fields.

The five suites are located each side of the pool, each offering a unique and secluded location. Enjoy spending time on your balcony, watching the surroundings for dancing peacocks, frolicking langurs, or swooping egrets.

Villa Alba aims to minimise their environmental footprint, utilising solar energy as the primary power source, and sourcing most of the fruits and vegetables from the garden or the local community. Bicycles are also provided for guests who wish to explore the village and its environs. Just ask villa manager Tharindu, he will be delighted to be your guide!
