Overview

For those looking for a sweet escape, this charming Barbados hideaway is situated right between Speightstown and Holetown making it a lovely holiday jaunt for young couples who crave a balance of privacy and excitement.

Cool clay tiles give this open plan one bedroom bungalow Mediterranean charm, while the elevated outdoor patio provides plenty of tropical ambience and an ideal setting for candlelight al fresco dining.

The kitchen features granite countertops and a casual kitchen island with stools as well as a breakfast nook and access to the patio. The bedroom is air-conditioned and the decor distinctly tropical.

The beautiful white sand of Gibbs Beach offers up the cool calm waters of the Caribbean Sea and is generally quiet, perfect for tranquil morning swims or late afternoon walks while the sun sets. For those looking for more energy, the bustling Mullins Beach is a short walk down the road and there are plenty of charming beach bars, upscale restaurants and luxury boutiques along the coast.
