Overview

Tucked away on a pine-clad hillside on the west coast of Corfu, with direct access to the sea below (300m walk), Villa Fedora commands a truly magical position overlooking the turquoise waters and basks in long days of wonderful sunsets.

The west coast of Corfu boasts some of the island's most exclusive properties, making it an increasingly popular destination for those in search of luxury accommodations, breathtaking scenery, and some of the best sandy beaches the island has to offer.

Boasting a contemporary design and modern construction of concrete and glass, the property offers the feeling of living in the wilderness, providing the perfect setting to enjoy the peace and tranquility of the natural surroundings.

Constructed in 2022, Villa Fedora features 5 stylish bedrooms, each with their own en-suite bathroom. Three bedrooms feature king beds and two feature twin beds. Relax in the open plan living spaces both indoor and out, while enjoying the spectacular views of the ocean. A fully equipped kitchen is the perfect place to whip up tasty meals using local ingredients for the whole family.
