

Cape Stout at Moskito

Perched on the northern cliff, Cape Stout embodies a hillside village. Seven thoughtfully appointed suites accommodate up to 14 adults, while a separate hideaway was made for up to 10 children. Headquarters, the heart of the estate, beckons with its charming dining spaces, cozy lounges, a poolside bar, and a vintage record player boasting a vast collection of vinyl treasures.

Overview

Moskito Island is a paradisiac island in the British Virgin Islands and offers unrivalled five star service. The island is located in the North Sound of the British Virgin Islands, in the eastern Caribbean Sea

Perched on the northern cliff, Cape Stout embodies a hillside village. Seven thoughtfully appointed suites accommodate up to 14 adults, while a separate hideaway was made for up to 10 children. Headquarters, the heart of the estate, beckons with its charming dining spaces, cozy lounges, a poolside bar, and a vintage record player boasting a vast collection of vinyl treasures.

Activities abound, from water sports on a private power boat to basketball on the half-court, yoga on the private deck or workouts in the cutting-edge gym. The pools, hot tubs, and outdoor cinema under the stars urge indulgence. Exclusive access to Honeymoon Beach elevates this energetic haven, beckoning adventurous souls seeking both rest and excitement.

Bedrooms:

Clifftop (primary suite): King bed with full ensuite, including outdoor rainfall shower, it is a private oasis with a garden, hot tub and pool with ocean view

The Nest (junior primary suite): King bed with full ensuite, including outdoor shower and bathtub, this is the only suite WITHOUT a TV, private plunge pool in the garden and steps away from the yoga pavilion

Salt & Sand: King suites with separate living room, loft seating area (optional pull-out sofa), loft pull out sofa great for kids travelling with parents, a large outdoor shower with recycled glass features. These are the only two suites that mimic each other, but they still have unique living room furnishings and colourings

Surf: Decorated in funky 'retro' colours, has an outdoor shower only. It has a perfect view of Honeymoon Beach with a large outdoor seating area. It is the closest suite to the gym and kids bunk room (Beach Barn)

Cliffside: There are two entrances to this King suite and it has direct access to the main pool from one entrance. You can literally jump in and out of the pool right at your door!

Flybridge: Main entry to this King suite is via a bridge. It has a large outdoor patio and an eastern view of the sunrise

Beach Barn: This room is aimed for children, but comfortable for all ages (as long as you like to share space!). It has a loft space with winding stairs up to the sleeping area which is equipped with 3 queen beds and 2 double beds that are all separated by curtains. There are 2 half baths (one on each level), and 'locker room style' side by side shower stalls (3), there is also a large outdoor shower. This room is right next to outdoor basketball court and has beautiful custom painted wooden sliding panels in front of the large TV. It is also equipped with a PlayStation 5
