Overview

Satin Doll is a beach villa that combines authentic old-world charm with modern style and sophistication. Nestled in one acre of landscaped gardens filled with coconut palms, this beautiful villa offers magnificent ocean views.

Satin Doll is spread over one floor and a mezzanine level and features five bedrooms, ample living areas, dining table, a TV room and a library. All the rooms overflow onto verandas that run the length of the home and which overlook the gardens and ocean.

This luxury home features five air-conditioned bedrooms spread over 2 wings, perfect for 2 families travelling together who want that extra bit of privacy. There are three double rooms, one twin and one family suite which has bunk beds. All five bedrooms open onto private terraces through tall louvered plantation doors with magnificent views overlooking the gardens and ocean.

Above the formal dining space is a mezzanine with a cosy TV room so you can curl up and watch a movie or listen to music. The room is furnished with comfortable sofas and chairs. The home cinema consists of a generous 46-inch flat screen TV, DVD player, surround sound speaker system and Satellite connection.

Satin Doll offers a wealth of living and dining space, both inside the villa and outside in secluded spots on the verandahs, in the garden and beachside. The double-height section at the centre of the villa contains sumptuously furnished living, reading and dining rooms. These are the ideal spaces for both entertaining in style and relaxation. The main living room spills out on to a verandah and a pool and can be entirely opened.

The villa comes fully staffed with a team of seven to make sure you have the most wonderful holiday.
