Overview

Twelve Porters Place is a contemporary three-bedroom villa in Porters, St. James, which has been thoughtfully designed for the perfect Barbados getaway. Blending modern style with comfort and sustainable features, this private home, set within a gated community of just 21 villas, offers the perfect base for enjoying the island's famous West Coast.

Inside, spacious, light-filled rooms create an atmosphere of relaxed elegance, with calming earth tones and a seamless flow between indoor and outdoor living. Spend lazy days by your private pool, unwind on the sun-drenched terrace, or relax in the open-plan living areas after a day at the beach. With three beautifully appointed bedrooms, the villa is ideal for families, couples, or friends looking for a stylish island escape.

Guests can stay active at the on-site gym or explore the Community Garden, where fresh herbs and vegetables are available for cooking up your next island-inspired meal. An easy walk brings you to Colony Club Beach and several of the West Coast's best beaches, perfect for swimming, sunbathing, or taking in a classic Barbados sunset.

Just minutes away in Holetown, you'll find the island's best dining, shopping, and nightlife. From the luxury boutiques and cafés at Limegrove Lifestyle Centre to the lively restaurant scene on 2nd Street, and beloved beachfront spots like Juju's and Lonestar, everything is conveniently close.

Eco-conscious by design, Twelve Porters Place features solar water heating, a photovoltaic system, and rainwater collection, ensuring your stay is as sustainable as it is luxurious.
