Overview

Villa Bendega Rato is a stylish and contemporary four bedroom villa set amid Canggu's rice fields, just minutes from the surf and the area's coolest cafés and bars. Accommodating 12 adults comfortably, the size of the property is impressive, from the large double height living room with comfortable sofas and 12-seater dining table, to the spacious poolside pavilion and rooftop terrace with a sunbathing bale perfect for sunset cocktails and stargazing.

For those looking for both peaceful moments and quality time spent together, the villas many living areas offer something for everyone. Daybeds and beanbags are tucked into shaded nooks, while a private one-bedroom suite set in its own walled garden with a plunge pool provides a luxurious hideaway for couples.

Throughout the villa, Indonesian antiques, artefacts, and handwoven textiles add a touch of heritage, complemented by modern comforts including a Sonos sound system, 55-inch plasma TV, Apple TV, and Blu-ray DVD. The dedicated team of staff, shared with neighbouring Bendega Nui, includes two talented chefs who prepare delicious meals from an extensive menu, whether Balinese favourites or western classics.

Each of the three spacious master suites in the main building features a four-poster bed, elegant ensuite bathroom, and private terrace overlooking the rice fields. The separate master suite can be added for extra guests, bringing the total to four bedrooms. For larger gatherings, Villa Bendega Nui next door can be rented together, creating a spectacular nine-bedroom estate ideal for weddings, retreats, or family reunions.

Just a five-minute drive from Canggu's surf beaches and a 20-minute trip to Seminyak, Villa Bendega Rato offers the best of both worlds, a tranquil rice-field sanctuary with easy access to Bali's vibrant coastal lifestyle.
