Overview

Nestled in the jungle-covered hills of Ubud and overlooking a river below, The Pala is a private estate designed for gatherings, weddings, reunions, and retreats. With 16 bedrooms across multiple villas, the estate accommodates up to 32 guests in a secure and tranquil setting.

Villa Agung

The estate's five-bedroom flagship villa, Villa Agung, sits at the top level near the entry and restaurant. Guests are welcomed through traditional Indonesian gates into expansive gardens with a large swimming pool, sculptures, and outdoor shower. With five bedrooms for up to 10 guests, Villa Agung offers both space and privacy.

Villa Seraya

The second-largest villa, Villa Seraya, can be booked as a four-bedroom home or as two separate two-bedroom residences, Villa Seraya A and Villa Seraya B. When reserved together, guests enjoy access to two private pools. The villa includes two bedrooms with king-sized beds and two with twin beds.

Villa Batur

Perfect for small families, Villa Batur offers two bedrooms on a single level, a private pool, and a rooftop terrace. The dining area overlooks jungle views, and couples will appreciate the outdoor shower.

Villa Catur

Designed for couples, Villa Catur is a self-contained one-bedroom villa that provides comfort, privacy, and the feeling of a home away from home.

Villa Sanghyang

A modern tropical four-bedroom villa, Villa Sanghyang combines contemporary design with classic furnishings to create an elegant yet welcoming retreat.

Guests may enjoy breakfast in their villas or at the estate's restaurant, Hura, which sources ingredients from the on-site fruit and vegetable gardens. The riverside lawn is an ideal location for yoga or spa treatments, while the estate's own rice fields offer guests the chance to experience traditional farming. The estate is located just 6 km from Ubud Palace, placing the town's cultural attractions within easy reach.
