Overview

Kai is a stylish and secluded Caribbean retreat set just behind the beachfront villa Kaiso in Fitts Village, on Barbados' prestigious Platinum West Coast. Offering a quieter atmosphere while still benefiting from dedicated beach access and proximity to the shoreline, this three-bedroom villa is ideal for guests who value privacy alongside easy access to the island's beach lifestyle.

The villa's layout includes two bedrooms on the upper level and one on the ground floor, with a bonus office or flexible space that can be used for remote work or as an overflow sleeping area on request. Kai's private plunge pool, semi-covered patio and lush tropical landscaping create a tranquil outdoor oasis, perfect for relaxation or casual al-fresco gatherings.

Interiors are warm and inviting, featuring a relaxed Caribbean design that complements the villa's peaceful setting. While the villa is conveniently located near the main road, thoughtful planning and planting ensure a comfortable and calm stay. Guests can easily enjoy the nearby reef-protected swimming and snorkelling in front of the property, or stroll a short distance along the beach for clear, calm water when conditions favour sandier access.

Whether rented on its own as a quiet getaway or alongside its sister villa for larger groups, Kai provides a comfortable and private base for experiencing the best of Barbados' west coast living.

Over the Festive period the villa can only be rented in combination with Kaiso, making it a 7 bedroom property sleeping 14 guests.
