Individually sited, with 5,812 square feet (540 square meters) of internal space, and 3,692 square feet (343 square meters) of landscaped gardens, you'll feel a world apart yet still closely connected to all the amenities of the resort, including the restaurants, water sports, and spa.

Six Senses La Sagesse has several dining options -three restaurants, two bars, bakery and destination dining.

Callaloo - The farm-to-table dining experience at Callaloo focusses on fresh, local, and seasonal produce. Offering comfort classic food in an indoor outdoor setting.

Panquai - Laze the day away poolside at Panquai, where a warm welcome and laid back vibe await you. By night it transforms into a relaxed but sophisticated cocktail bar.

Scoop Cafe - Open daily and offering cold brew ice coffees, smoothies, shakes, and complimentary shaved ice.

SeaFire - The resort's signature restaurant is where creativity, experimentation, and emotion unite to engage all your senses.

Destination and in-villa dining - Couples and small groups can create their own backdrop thanks to destination dining options including a beach blanket BBQ, or Chef's Garden experience. There's also in-villa dining for staying in with a beautifully presented dinner or movie night.

Wellness and Spa - Six Senses resorts are renowned for their wellness and spa programmes, and Six Senses La Sagesse is no different. The spa is uniquely placed overlooking the lagoon and offers a haven for rejuvenation. The design is inspired by a traditional Caribbean fishing village with treatment suites surrounding the water to reflect shimmering hues of blue from the sky.
