Overview

Located in the peaceful hills above Bophut, Villa Suralai offers a wonderful private retreat that captures the essence of Koh Samui. Set within peaceful, landscaped grounds on the island's north-east coast, just 15 minutes from the airport, this magnificent six-bedroom villa boasts panoramic views and quiet seclusion far from the bustle below.

As you step through the grand living pavilion and out onto the terrace, you are met with the lovely view of the 25-metre infinity pool framed by Bophut Bay and the islands beyond. Every bedroom features its own private terrace, ensuring that guests wake each day to the same mesmerising outlook. The bedrooms are spread across three levels. The first master bedroom is located on the 3rd floor in a pavilion next to the main building and features a king size four poster bed, terrace and ensuite bathroom. The second master bedroom is directly below on the second floor and has a similar layout, with the terrace leading to the pool area. Three guest rooms are located on the mezzanine level, below the main living area, and feature king sized beds, terraces and ensuite bathrooms. The final bedroom is located on the lower garden level (below the second master) and features twin beds and an ensuite bathroom.

The villa's architectural centrepiece is its stunning living and dining pavilion. This soaring structure with a cathedral ceiling and pitched roof is where delicious meals are served against a backdrop of emerald hills and sea views. By day, the poolside Thai sala is the perfect place to relax, whether for a light lunch, a shaded massage, or a lazy afternoon with a book.

Villa Suralai is fully staffed with a dedicated team of four, including a villa manager and resident chef, ensuring a seamless, personalised stay. From sunrise breakfasts to sunset cocktails, every moment here is designed to immerse guests in the island's natural beauty and effortless sophistication.
