Overview

A true home from home, the delightfully elegant Villa Taratsa is nestled on a hillside with astonishing views of the Ionian Sea. This private escape is a luxurious base for up to twelve guests from which to appreciate the wonders of the island of Corfu.

The almost hidden setting of Villa Taratsa, surrounded by lush trees to one side and the clear waters of the Ionian Sea at the front of the property, makes it the perfect private retreat ideal for relaxation. The six bedroom residence has charmingly stone-clad terrace walls, making it feel like a Greek country home, and the interior is equally inviting using unpretentious and neutral decor and design to make you feel instantly at home. Refined wood and marble finishings give it an elegant look and feel, along with vibrant artworks to add personality and flair to the open-plan living and dining area.

The bedrooms are spread across the three floors of the villa, and are designed to focus on views over the surrounding landscape, whilst the outdoor space is arguably the most alluring area to take advantage of the Greek sunshine. With shaded bamboo pergolas, a large rectangular infinity edge swimming pool with comfortable sun loungers, Jacuzzi, parasols and a spacious sun deck, along with a shady lounge area with rattan sofas, it is the ideal space for lazing. A steam room, gym and spa area are perfect additions after a day of island exploration.

The popular marina of Gouvia is just a five minute drive from your villa, and Corfu Town is only 15 minutes, meaning that despite its very exclusive setting you easily find yourself in the island's most glamorous and stylish spots with little effort.
