

Villa Stasy

Overview

Villa Stasy is a beautifully designed two bedroom villa perched on the west coast of Corfu. The property enjoys spectacular sea views and an unrivalled position. The western coast of Corfu boasts some of the most upscale residences on the island and has become increasingly popular among those in search of luxury accommodations, breathtaking scenery, and some of the best sandy beaches that the area has to offer.

If complete seclusion is what you are looking for, yet still close to the charming village of Pentati, then Villa Stasy is the ideal choice. Situated at the end of a private driveway, this property comprises two bedrooms (King or Twin beds) and three bathrooms. The first floor spans an area of 70 square meters, while the second floor spans 100 square meters. The villa is ideal for honeymooners or small families wanting a touch of luxury.

Built in 2022, the contemporary and modern design is a mixture of concrete and glass which imparts a sense of living in the midst of wilderness. The villa provides an ideal location to bask in the serenity of the natural surroundings and relish in the best of futuristic living.
