Overview

Overlooking the golf course in the luxurious Apes Hill resort community in Barbados, Fairwinds offers guests all the benefits of an exclusive resort with additional private amenities of its very own private gym, cinema, air-conditioned bar area and games room. This ultra-luxury four-bedroom villa is spacious, fully staffed with chef, butler and housekeeping staff, and designed for guests who want to truly switch off. Fairwinds features four bedrooms in the main house and is ideal for multi-generational families, couples travelling together, or groups celebrating a special occasion.

Inside, the villa is calm and refined. All four bedrooms are located upstairs and finished with clean lines, soft textures, and a touch of tropical colour. Three of the bedrooms feature king-size beds, en suite bathrooms, and private terraces with elevated views over the golf course and Caribbean Sea. The fourth bedroom has a king bed, with its bathroom located just outside.

Days here unfold naturally. Mornings start slow, often with coffee on your terrace or a dip in the pool. Some guests move between the pool loungers and the shaded gazebo with a book in hand. Others might sneak off for a golf round or a massage at the wellness centre. Meals bring everyone back together, especially dinners under the stars at the alfresco dining area by the pool deck.

Fairwinds is fully staffed with a butler, housekeeper, private chef, and house manager so everything from fresh towels to sunset drinks is effortlessly handled.

Guests staying at Fairwinds enjoy full Apes Hill Club membership. That means access to the championship golf course, padel courts, restaurant, wellness centre, clubhouse, and walking trails. Some guests spend their days on the course. Others book a massage, head to a yoga session, or stay close to home and let the day drift by.

And when you're ready to explore, Holetown's fine dining Barbados scene is just 12 minutes away. Speightstown, with its relaxed charm and beach bars, is only 16 minutes in the other direction.

Fairwinds is also available to book for groups of up to 12 persons at a 6-bedroom rate.
