Overview

Villa Jasper is a lovely three-bedroom single-level villa in Terres Basses, set in the most exclusive residential area on the French side of the island with unobstructed views across the lagoon and out to the Caribbean Sea. It's a serene, well-positioned property with a fascinating history, the villa was previously owned by the American artist Jasper Johns, after whom it is named. It can accommodate up to 6 guests and can also be booked as a two-bedroom villa for smaller groups.

The two bedrooms at the front of the house have floor-to-ceiling water views and beautiful bathrooms with mosaic tile showers in greens and blues that reflect the view beyond. The third bedroom to the rear has its own lovely stone-walled garden, with an ornamental pool and fountain and a pergola seating area filled with tropical plants. The en-suite bathroom features an indoor shower as well as a beautiful open-air shower set in the lush and private tropical garden.

The main living area has lofty high ceilings and walls of glass with stunning views. It also features a sound system, cable TV with American channels, air conditioning, ceiling fans, and exterior sliding doors that open onto the outdoor spaces. The kitchen is well equipped for those who love to cook, as well as a Nespresso machine for coffee lovers. There is also a gas BBQ and outdoor dining area, a gazebo, and a private pool with sun loungers, all set within a gated property with private parking.

Baie Rouge and Baie Longue beaches are both within easy reach, and the property is the ideal spot for exploring the best of the French side of the island.
