Enter through Imposing cathedral-arch double doors into the main level where tropical courtyard gardens and covered terracotta walkways lead to the main bedroom pods. Mirror-image king master bedrooms with full en-suite bathrooms are to the east and west, each with private balconies. The third queen bedroom suite at Reef Tides enjoys an uninterrupted view of the ocean on the west side of the house, while the large well-equipped kitchen is to the east. The spacious indoor family room occupies a central position and offers a comfortable sitting area for TV or movie watching and a more formal dining option for up to 10 guests. An exterior staircase leads down to the fourth bedroom suite with en-suite bathroom and sitting area.
