Overview

Villa Jean is a jaw-dropping historic complex boasting a lovingly converted ancient tower and four historic annex buildings, situated in a sprawling estate with access to a private cove. There's also an impressive double-level swimming pool, making this an Italian villa quite unlike any other.

The three-storey tower is the estate's centrepiece, combining rustic, angular architecture with breath-taking views and airy interiors. Surrounding this magnificent icon is a scattering of 'dependencies', each providing elegant air-conditioned accommodation for between two and four guests depending on the annex.

Villa Jean's estate is simply stunning, and impressively large, meaning the complimentary electric golf cart is a useful asset. Discover hidden vistas and follow the winding pathway down to your very own private cove for swimming and relaxing. The dramatic split-level swimming pool and range of sun terraces ensure that outdoor space is at a maximum.
