Overview

Monkey View is a lovely single-level villa tucked away on a quiet cul-de-sac just a short stroll from the beach. Combining classic Barbadian architecture with effortless island style, it offers the perfect balance of comfort, privacy, and laid-back luxury. Surrounded by lush tropical gardens and complete with a private pool, this peaceful retreat captures the essence of West Coast living.

From the moment you enter through the columned porch, the villa feels warm and welcoming. The open-plan living and dining area features coral stone accents, vaulted ceilings, and French doors that open directly onto the terrace and pool. Interiors are elegantly understated in soft neutral tones, complemented by natural textures and subtle tropical touches that reflect the island's relaxed charm.

A fully equipped kitchen with rich wood cabinetry, granite countertops, and modern appliances provides everything needed for effortless dining, whether you prefer meals prepared by a private chef or a casual evening at home.

The villa offers three beautifully styled bedrooms. The master suite features a king bed, large ensuite bathroom and terrace. An additional two guest bedrooms feature a king and twin beds as well as ensuite bathrooms.

Designed for easy outdoor living, the terrace is the heart of the villa. A comfortable lounge area, al fresco dining table, and sleek bar overlook the pool, creating an inviting space for long, leisurely lunches or sunset cocktails. The pool itself is bordered by sun loungers and potted palms, shaded by deep navy umbrellas, offering complete tranquility and privacy.

Lush gardens wrap around the property, filled with flowering hedges and vibrant tropical greenery that create a peaceful, secluded ambiance, making Monkey View a true hidden gem on Barbados' beautiful West Coast.
