Originally built in the 1950s as the residence of a United States Ambassador, Nelson Gay exudes Palladian grandeur with its elegant coral stone mansion and 14-foot ceilings in the living room. The centrepiece of the estate is a stunning 50-foot pool tiled in Italian mosaics depicting turtles and fish, symbolically summoning the sea from the heart of the house.

The interior design features a predominantly white palette complemented by unique pieces and antiques, creating a fresh and airy atmosphere. The sleeping quarters offer comfort and tranquilly, with plush beds, quality linens, and hypoallergenic pillows.

Guests can unwind in the elegant garden gazebo or on the covered terraces of the bedrooms while enjoying safe swimming and snorkelling in the crystal-clear waters just steps away. Family-friendly amenities include an open-air gym and a pickleball court, ensuring endless entertainment for all ages.

Accommodations comprise seven bedrooms, including five ensuite bedrooms in the main house, one in a guest cottage, and another in a charming chattel house in the garden. Two additional chattel houses can be rented to accommodate up to 18 guests, each with en suite bathrooms.
