Overview

Villa Firefly is a stunning seven-bedroom villa located at Anse de Cayes with magnificent ocean views - Blue is the defining feature of many of the wondrous vistas that guests take in while staying in this high-end luxury home.

The bedrooms are spread out among separate buildings. The master bedroom is located in its own pavilion behind the main living areas, with a king-size bed, outdoor shower, and small private terrace with sun chairs.

The other bedrooms are in the main building but private, reached by following a small staircase down from the main living room. On the middle level are two bedrooms with king-size beds and lavish en-suite bathrooms. Down on the level yet below, are four smaller bedrooms, each with twin beds that can be made up as a king and a small private bathroom.

Aside from the views over Anse des Cayes, on of the key features of the villa is the pool area, with open bar connecting the indoors out. The separate Great Room has three glass walls that can be opened wide to welcome in the cooling breeze. This room has an elegant wood dining table and has satellite and Apple TV.

Villa Firefly is located at Anse de Cayes. The picturesque beach, bordered by sea grape and palm trees, is not for swimming but is perfect for tidal-pool exploring and relaxing in the shade. The neighborhood has its own small supermarket and a couple of restaurants, so visitors don't need to stray far if solitude and seclusion are what they seek. Yet Gustavia, St. Jean and the white-sand beach at Flamands are all around a 10-minute drive away, so Anse de Cayes makes a nicely centra base for exploring the island as well.
