Overview

Villa El Royale is one of Syros' most impressive private villas, combining classic architecture with modern upgrades for the ultimate in luxury. From the moment you step through the dramatic colonnaded entrance, you'll be immersed in a world of upscale comfort.

The villa covers more than 450 square metres of space, carefully updated and modernised to provide the modern luxuries discerning travellers require. The main living space has new wood-tone flooring, impressive bespoke seating and iconic furniture pieces including a carved wood fireplace to create an elegant environment. Close by, the formal wood-panelled dining room is perfect for mealtimes, while the chic custom-designed kitchen is also within easy reach and provides a wealth of modern amenities for mealtime convenience. The villa also boasts a private study for those requiring space to work or read.

Outside, Villa El Royale offers a contemporary terrace space, with an outdoor living room area featuring inviting sofa seating and a dining table. Adjacent to the terrace is the villa's spacious outdoor swimming pool, while the private tennis court is a short walk away also.

Accommodation

Villa El Royale has six bedrooms, with two bedrooms in the main villa and four bedrooms in independently-accessed guesthouses.

The Main Villa

On the first floor of the main villa, there are two bedrooms, each with an en-suite bathroom. One is the master suite and also offers a private balcony.

Guesthouses

There are three guesthouses, one with an en-suite double bedroom, another with two double bedrooms sharing a bathroom, and one more with a double bedroom and a small single bedroom sharing a bathroom.
