Overview

Step into the rural hillsides of Alonnisos and discover Villa Island View: a breathtaking contemporary estate offering six bedrooms and an outdoor swimming pool.

The villa site is a private plot with four individual buildings, including the main villa and three guesthouse residences. The main building is a modern and stylish space for communal use, with an orangery-style living room boasting spectacular sea views, shared with a stylish dining room. There is also a well-equipped kitchen close by for your convenience. Elsewhere on the estate, three architect-designed guesthouses offer accommodation, accessed via lavender-scented pathways that wind across the hillside estate.

When it comes to enjoying the views and the climate, you'll be able to take advantage of the impressive freeform 25-metre swimming pool and sun terrace. There are also three barbecues on-site, as well as plenty of outdoor dining space, helping you to enjoy an al fresco meal whenever you choose.
