Overview

Designed by world-renowned architect Peter Inston, Calico is a contemporary beachfront villa set along Barbados' coveted Platinum Coast, only a 10 minute drive from the luxury shopping and dining of Holetown. This beautiful new-build features sophisticated modern finishes and has a sense of timeless elegance. It is the perfect option for your next Caribbean escape.

The villa's prime beachfront position offers direct access to the sand, while its open-plan living and dining areas blur the lines between indoors and out. Multiple rooms have uninterrupted ocean views, and the large covered terrace provides a great space for entertaining with the Caribbean Sea in the background. The private pool is surrounded by tropical landscaping, with the master suite enjoying its own exclusive rooftop pool, an intimate sanctuary for sunrise swims or sunset lounging.

Inside, six spacious en-suite bedrooms are thoughtfully designed for comfort and privacy, complemented by a sleek, modern kitchen and beautifully finished interiors throughout. Convenience and security are paramount, with a private lift, gated entry, and a dedicated Security Hub. Wellness enthusiasts will appreciate the on-site gym, spa, and juice bar, offering a resort-style experience within the privacy of home.

Life at Calico is shaped by the rhythm of the ocean, with morning walks along the shoreline, alfresco meals with panoramic sea views, and peaceful afternoons spent by the pool. Combining exceptional design, generous amenities, and one of the island's most desirable beachfront settings, Calico delivers the ultimate in luxury, comfort, and Caribbean lifestyle.
