Overview

Just 150 metres from Canggu Beach, Villa Zelig is a wonderful example of heritage design and tropical luxury. Located between Seminyak and Canggu, the villa sits at the heart of Bali's vibrant coastal scene, close to world-class dining, boutique shopping, and beach clubs like Finn's, yet offering a peaceful retreat within its lush private grounds.

Spanning over 3,300 sqm, Villa Zelig features plenty of traditional Indonesian architecture and artistry. The estate's teak and ironwood pavilions, inspired by Javanese joglos and gladak houses, are decorated with hand-carved details, antique furnishings, and unique collectibles chosen by the villa's owner. Five elegant, individually housed air-conditioned bedrooms surround a 20-metre swimming pool, each with canopy beds, spacious open-air bathrooms, and shaded verandas ideal for morning coffee or afternoon relaxation.

The villa's layout is perfect for both socialising and moments of quiet. Four open-sided living pavilions provide spaces to dine, read, or simply unwind while overlooking the terraced gardens, koi ponds, and lotus-filled walkways. As evening falls, soft lighting illuminates the stone paths and lawns, creating a tranquil, almost magical ambiance beneath the stars.

Guests are cared for by a dedicated team, including a villa manager, private chef, and butlers, who make sure that every stay is unforgettable. Whether gathered for family-style meals, movie nights on the outdoor projection screen, or relaxing by the pool, Villa Zelig strikes the perfect balance between traditional charm and modern comfort.

Due to the layout of individual rooms surrounding the pool, the villa is ideal for groups of friends, or older families looking for privacy while still enjoying quality time together.
