Overview

Villa Millennium View is a contemporary villa, designed by the award-winning architect Vasco Vieira, and is a great choice for anyone looking for total privacy on their villa holiday. In a tranquil location, you'll be surrounded by elegant cypress trees, set in 1 ¼ acres and within a luxurious gated community.

Light and airy, this delightful Algarve villa is a chic and spacious place to stay. Golf lovers will enjoy the views, as the villa is on the border of the Vilamoura golf course. Settle back with an evening drink and enjoy the roof terrace views onto the Millennium course. What's more, the beach and marina are only five minutes away, so you'll have everything close and convenient to ensure you have a relaxing holiday.

With spacious rooms, furnished to a high standard throughout, combined with an open plan and totally modern way of living, your Algarve holiday promises elegance and comfort in equal measure.

Everyone will get a comfy spot to relax in the evenings as the open-plan living and dining room has large sofas and an oversized dining table which can seat up to 14 people. During the day, you can dine al fresco on the terrace which has teak and rattan furniture, covered terraces and two BBQ area. There's no need to fight over the rooms, as all six contemporarily decorated bedrooms come with en-suite bathrooms and they all have air conditioning, walk-in wardrobes and under floor heating throughout. Families will love the basement area. This large additional hi-light of the villa boasts a spacious games room with pool table, table football, table tennis and a darts board. There's also a bar and a home theatre for watching movies, complete with Lay-Z-Boy seating for twelve.
