Overview

Set along the shimmering shores of Canggu, Arnalaya Beach House is a beautiful example of modern beachside living. Surrounded by lush tropical gardens, with its own private tennis court, gym, spa, and 20-metre saltwater pool, this exceptional five-bedroom villa offers the ultimate setting for relaxation, wellness, and celebration.

Designed by renowned architect Sonny Chan in collaboration with interior designer Albano Daminato, Arnalaya Beach House combines contemporary architecture with warm, natural materials to create a home that feels sophisticated and inviting. The villa's open-plan design allows ocean breezes to flow freely through light-filled spaces, while glass walls blur the boundary between indoors and out. The heart of the property is the entertainment bale, a stunning open-air pavilion overlooking the Indian Ocean. Here you will find a kitchen, barbecue, and dining space for over a dozen guests. Here, your private chef can prepare everything from casual lunches to gourmet feasts, all enjoyed to the soundtrack of rolling surf just metres away.

Inside, the villa's five elegant bedrooms feature sculptural terrazzo walls, sleek timber finishes, and stylish canopied beds. Two of the suites include freestanding bathtubs positioned before wide bay windows, offering uninterrupted ocean views. Every room is designed with comfort and calm in mind, combining modern minimalism with soft, natural textures.

Arnalaya Beach House is as much about activity as it is about rest. The private tennis court invites friendly matches under the sun, while the gym, spa, and ocean-view yoga decks provide space to move, stretch, and unwind. Families will find plenty to enjoy too, from the expansive lawns and sparkling pool to the fully equipped entertainment room stocked with books, games, art supplies, and a large-screen TV for movie nights.

Just beyond the villa, the laid-back charm of Canggu awaits. A short stroll brings you to a collection of vibrant cafés, boutiques, and beachfront bars, making it easy to explore one of Bali's most dynamic coastal communities.
